

New Year's Racing Was Great Success

Honolulu Horse Takes Money In Big Event But Maui Horses Do Well In Other Races—Cowboy Sports Good

Maui's New Year's races and frontier sports celebration was a glorious success in every way except from a money-making standpoint. In this last, however, the promoters of the big enterprise, Angus McPhee and Frank H. Loecey, are feeling good over the fact that while they did not make money, they at least broke even.

But the day was probably the biggest one ever held at the Kahului track. Over 2500 paid admissions were recorded, and best of all the big crowd felt that it got its money's worth. The racing was good, but a track was heavy from the recent rains, and the time in all of the races was rather slow. The fact that Honolulu visitors took back the prize in the big trotting and pacing race for all, won by Tom Hollinger's "Welcome Boy," and a good bit of Maui money besides this, did not dampen the enthusiasm of Maui sportsmen.

The amount of the purses paid amounted to between $1800 and $1900, while the gate receipts totaled a little over $2000. Other expenses and profits about offset each other.

While the failure of the excursion steamer to come from Honolulu, owing to the fact that the men of the Fourth Cavalry were prevented from coming by storm damage to their quarters, there were about 100 visitors from the city. The Fourth Cavalry band, which did come, added greatly to the success of the occasion.

Cowboy Stunts a Novelty.

The frontier sports events, which occupied most of the afternoon, following the race program, was a great novelty to the Maui audience, and it is quite certain that this was but the first of many more elaborate affairs of this kind. From the fact that the game was a new one, many of the best cowboys on Maui were a little diffident at first, and it took some little persuasion to get them into the spirit of the game. However, before the day was finished a more enthusiastic bunch would have been hard to find, and it quite certain that the next contest of the kind pulled off on Maui will find more candidates for the honors than can be accommodated.

Denervo Wins First Heat.

Welcome Boy got his revenge over last Fourth of July's defeat from Angus McPhee's Denervo, by taking the second, third and fourth heats in the big trotting-pacing event. Denervo took the first heat in the rather slow time of 2:19 3/5; but was unable to keep up the strain, and in the second heat Tom Hollinger's entry claimed first place in 2:24. After this Welcome Boy improved, making third heat in 2:19 2/5, and the final heat in 2:23 3/5. Betting was even on this race, and a good deal of it changed hands as a result.

Other events were as follows:

Third Event—Half-mile dash, free-for-all—Won by Dr. Fitzgerald's Copra over Jerry Broderick's Harvester. Time, 52.

Fourth Event—Fat Man's Race, 100 yards. First prize $10—Won by Sheriff Clem Crowell, with David Kama taking second place, and the $5 that went with it. George Cummings formed the field. This was one of the funny stunts of the day.

Fifth Event—Japanese Race, half-mile dash, Purse $100—Won by Laiden, Yokohama 2nd. Time 0:55 1/5.

Sixth Event—Three-Year-Old, 3/4 mile dash; Purse $250—Won by H. A. Baldwin's Senator B., Copra 2nd. Time 1:22 3/5.

Seventh Event—Foot Race, 220-yard dash, Purse, a gold medal—Won by Tommie Cummings; William Morris, 2nd; Frank Coelho and A. Taylor, also ran. Time 0:24 4/5.

Eighth Event—Trotting or Pacing, 2:15 class; Purse $400—Won by Harold D. entered by Joe Silva, over Maui Boy, of James Cornwell. Time, 2:29, 2:28, 2:23. Harold D. took all heats.

Mr. Hotel Cup Novelty Race—Mile-and-a-half dash.—This race was between Frances B. (H. A. Baldwin) and Harvester (Jerry Broderick). Harvester won the race in the finish in 2:52 2/5, taking the cup and $100 purse, but Frances B. led almost to the finish, and took each of eleven $25 purses offered to the horse in the lead at each eighth-mile post.

Steer Riding Contest

Willie Smythe and Manuel Francis shared honors in the steer riding contest, probably the first of this kind ever seen on Maui. The possibilities of this sport were sufficiently demonstrated in this event to make it certain that it will be of much interest in future affairs of the kind. Both men were awarded $15 for their riding.

Hoping Contest

George Richardson won the steer roping contest from Ed. Lindsay, roping and tying his animal to a tree in 45 seconds. Lindsay did his trick in 1:7. The prize in this event was $15.

Promotionists Meet Here Next Week

Plan To Arrive Next Friday For Three-Day Session—Will Make Haleakala Trip.

Worth O. Aiken, the Maui representative of the Hawaii Promotion Committee, has been advised that the members of the committee will hold a meeting on Maui, January 15th to 17th inclusive. This will be the meeting which was to have been held here in November, but which was called off at the last moment when several members found it impossible to attend.

Mr. Aiken states that practically all of the members will probably be here this time. They plan to come up on the Claudine on Friday the 14th, landing the same night at Lahaina, and coming over to Wailuku the following day. The party will make the ascent of Haleakala and will probably hold a meeting in Wailuku on Saturday or Monday. A dinner will probably be given them on Monday evening, following which they will leave to take the Mauna Kea at Lahaina. Should it be possible for the members to remain over until Wednesday, it is planned to take them over the ditch trail.

The promotion committee at present made up of—E. A. Berndt, chairman, Ed Towse, A. F. Wall, Bert Hollinger, L. A. Thurston, D. P. R. Isenberg (Kauai), G. H. Vicars (Hawaii), and W. O. Aiken (Maui). A. P. Taylor, director and secretary of the committee, will also attend the Maui meeting.

AND THE BABY WON'T TELL.

It isn't every 6-months-old baby that gets his picture (in his birthday suit) reproduced on the front page of a city newspaper, as a "New Year Baby." But such is the distinction that has overtaken the husky young son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Correa, of Wailuku. Young "Sonny" seems to have stolen a march on his parents, who were greatly surprised to recognize their young hopeful's likeness as the principal feature of the Honolulu Advertiser's New Year's greeting.

ENTRIES OPEN FOR H. A. BALDWIN CUP TOURNAMENT

Entries for the Maui championship doubles tournament for the Harry A. Baldwin cup are now being received by David Rattray, secretary of the Puunene Athletic club. The tournament will start probably the latter part of the month, entries closing on the 15th. The cup is at present held by Collins and Lindsay of the Pala club. It must be won twice in succession by the same team in order to be held permanently. Much interest is being manifested in this tournament, which is open to all Maui players, and indications are that a large number of contestants will be in the field this year. It is probable that the Wailuku players will make a strong try for the trophy this year.

for this event would really "buck" when the time came, this proved to be groundless, for there was some very fancy demonstrations on the part of the bad horses, that made lots of excitement for the big crowd. David Kulakoi won the $65 saddle offered in this contest as first prize, and J. Hardy got the second prize of $25 cash, and Waiwalele, for being the most graceful faller, got $5 in cash. Maikai Kaililili won the first prize of $10 and Manuel Francis the second prize of $5 in the calf branding contest.

Low Beaten By McPhee.

In the final contest Angus McPhee beat by a good margin his friend Eben Low in a roping contest—one of the features of the day. Both of these contestants are minus a hand, and both are old timers at the game. McPhee roped and tied his animal in 1:37. The Honolulu roper, in a previous contest in 1908 did the trick in 1:6. McPhee, the year previous to that at Cheyenne, Wyoming, made the record, before he lost his hand, of 35 2/5 seconds, taking the championship. The contest last Saturday was for a stake of $250, and the outfit of the loser.

Japanese Were Scarce.

Owing to the fact that the Japanese celebrate New Years differently from other nationalities, there were very few of this race at the races, although ordinarily they are one of the mainstays of racing meets on Maui. However the Portuguese and other nationalities of Maui more than made up in attendance.

Officers of the Meet.

The officers of the day were—Angus McPhee and F. H. Loecey, promoters and managers.

Judges of all races—S. S. Paxson, George Kinney, H. G. Field.

Judges of all Cowboy Sports—D. Fleming, W. A. Clark, A. Betts.

Starters—A. McPhee, F. H. Loecey. Time-keepers—J. J. Walsh, J. D. McInerney.

Clerk of Course—W. E. Bal, Sr. Judge Clerk—George Cummings.

Military Ball Was Brilliant Success

Elite of Maui Usher New Year In—
Gen. Johnson and Mrs. Penhallow
Lead Grand March.

Between four and five hundred persons attended the big National Guard ball at the Wailuku armory on New Year's eve, and the affair was not only one of the largest, but was probably the most brilliant social function ever given on Maui. Every part of Maui was fully represented, and many visitors from Honolulu were also present. Brigadier-General Samuel I. Johnson representing the Governor, led the grand march, with Mrs. Harry Penhallow, and the big armory floor was thronged with animated dancers in this opening event. With the smart white uniforms of the officers of the Third regiment and the scores of magnificent costumes of the ladies, the scene was indeed a brilliant and inspiring one. The dancing continued until between two and three o'clock of New Year's morning.

Music was furnished by the 4th Cavalry band and Miss Hoffman's orchestra, alternating, and the floor was crowded almost continuously. In spite of the spaciousness of the armory, which has just been enlarged, the crowd of dancers was at times too great for comfort.

Prior to the grand march a most interesting program had been arranged, consisting of several excellent monologues by W. H. Hutton of Honolulu, who came up for the purpose, a solo by H. W. Baldwin—"Danny Deever," a bayonet drill by Company G, and an excellent Butt's manual of arms drill by Company I (to music), and a similar drill, but in silence. Every feature was good and greatly appreciated.

NEW YEAR'S EVE DANCE AT COMMUNITY HOUSE

A very enjoyable New Year's Eve dance was held at the Pala Community House, entertaining the members of the younger social set. Pleasant games, followed by dancing were arranged by Mrs. H. A. Baldwin and Mrs. P. A. Stevens. The rooms were charmingly decorated, and with Gonzalez's orchestra rendering inspiring music, the dancers about one hundred in number, found the hour of closing came far too soon.

PRIZE ESSAY CONTEST ON PATRIOTISM ANNOUNCED

In order to stimulate American patriotism in the territory, and to increase the interest in the study of American citizenship, the Hawaiian Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, and the Aloha Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, have joined in offering prizes for essays on the subject of "The True American Citizen." One set of prizes is offered to High School pupils in the territory, and the other set will be given to writers who are not in school, but who are under the age of 22 years. Each set of prizes consists of one first prize of $10, two second prizes of $5 each, and five third prizes of $2 each.

PECULIAR SUIT BROUGHT AGAINST DISTRICT MAGISTRATE

The third of a series of suits in as many weeks, brought by Attorney Eugene Murphy against Judge W. A. McKay, Wailuku, district magistrate, to recover money deposited in the court to cover costs in various actions, was tried today before District Magistrate Gay S. Goodness, of the Makawao district. The suit involved the return costs in five small cases, and amounted in all to $5.40. Judgment was rendered for $1.70 and for 50 cents, in two of the specifications, the defense winning the other three. It is possible that the matter may be appealed.

There was no controversy as to the facts in the case, Murphy admitting that he knew the money could be had provided he would sign a receipt to the court clerk for the same, but he had refused to do this. D. H. Case and Enos Vincent represented Judge McKay as attorneys.

Sanitarium Children Are Without School

Many Others in District Would Benefit By Model Health School Planned—
Christmas a Glad Day For Them

Because there are at present eight children in the institution who should be in school, but have no opportunity under present conditions, Dr. C. P. Durney, superintendent of the Kula Sanitarium, is considering bringing to the attention of the board of supervisors, at its next week's meeting, the need of establishing a school at the sanitarium. Dr. Durney states that there are perhaps 20 or 30 children in the district, who would be benefited by being in such a school as he has in mind. The class of children he refers to are such as have tuberculous tendency, who are anæmic, or otherwise not normal.

Should it be possible to have this school established, Dr. Durney states that he will plan to have the children served with nutritious food, as a part of their treatment, with the object of building up their constitutions and checking possible development of tuberculosis or other disease.

While there are but 8 children patients actually in the hospital at the present time, Dr. Durney expects, now that the new women's and children's ward has been completed, and facilities increased, that the number of children will soon be considerably increased. If the county can see its way clear to build the small school building and a teacher's cottage, it will probably be easy to get a competent instructor appointed by the school department.

Bright Christmas At Kula.

In spite of torrential rains, Christmas day at the Kula sanitarium was a very bright one for all of the unfortunate. This was due largely to the efforts of Mrs. Harry Baldwin, Mrs. Frank Baldwin, and Mrs. Harold Rice, who saw to it that every patient was bountifully remembered. Every one received real Christmas presents, and every one appreciated the fact. There was a fine Christmas tree in the new H. C. & S. ward, and James Cumming, of Pala, did the Santa Claus stunt in distributing the gifts, to perfection. The children of the sanitarium gave a pretty little program of songs and recitations.

SCHOOL LECTURE COURSE TO BEGIN NEXT FRIDAY

"Stepping Stones to Success," is the subject of a short address which will be given next Friday afternoon at the Wailuku Public School, by D. H. Case, to the pupils of the upper grades in the school, and to the general public, which is cordially invited. This is the first of the series of addresses which has been arranged for, by Miss Crickard, the principal, to be given twice each month during the balance of the school year. The program prepared for next Friday, will begin promptly at 1 o'clock.

Plenty of Liquor But Not One Drunk At Races

With one of the biggest crowds assembled in the history of Maui, there was not a single drunken man observed at the races at Kahului on New Year's day.

"This is probably the first time in history that such a statement can be made," says Sheriff Clem Crowell. "It is not a case, this time, of saloons being closed for there was no restriction on the sale of liquor. The Kahului saloon was entirely empty of customers at various times during the day. It was simply a case of the people not wanting liquor. There was not an arrest made during the day. A similar state of affairs is reported also from Hana and from Lahaina. It was an exceedingly quiet New Year's, as far as the police court is concerned."

PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

A quiet home wedding was solemnized on New Year's evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Hart, of Wailuku, when their daughter, Miss Louisa Keohi Hart became the bride of Mr. George William Weight, of Hilo. The ceremony took place at 6 o'clock, and was performed by the Rev. J. C. Villiers, past of the Church of the Good Shepherd. Only the members of the family and a few of the more intimate friends of the young people were witnesses.

The bride, who is a Maui girl of many rare qualities, has been a teacher at Camp 1 school for some time. Mr. Weight, who is a nephew of George Weight, of Wailuku, is connected with the government dredging work at Hilo.

The Italian steamer Verdi arrived from Genoa today with 2 1/2-inch guns mounted in the stern. Passengers on the vessel declared that the Italian government is responsible for thus arming the liner, and that the guns are intended to repel submarines, in case a Teuton diver tried to attack passenger ship. Skilled gunners of Italian navy are in charge of the guns on Giuseppe Verdi. They practiced daily while steamer was coming from Italy, say the passengers. Barrels were thrown overboard, and the navy men shot at them with the inch guns.
